This is the Isle of Struay.
This is Katie Morag.
Katie Morag lives with her mother, father and her little brother Liam. She lives above the island's only shop where her mother and father work.
Her mother is the postmistress and her father runs the general store. She has two grannies. One is called Grannie Island and the other Granma Mainland. Her grannies were very different, but she loves them both.
There is going to be an Isle of Struay Show. Granma Mainland has come to the island to see the show and stay for a holiday.
Grannie Island had a prize sheep called Alecina. Katie Morag was going to help her grannie get the sheep ready for the show.

“Look at your fleece! And today of all days!”
“We’ll never get these stains out in time for the show.”
“Granma Mainland has some stuff to make her hair silvery white,” said Katie Morag thoughtfully. Fortunately no-one was about when they did this...
And Granma Mainland would have been furious at this...
...not to mention this.
But it all ended well. At the sight of Alecina's shiny coat and curls, there was no doubt who should win the Silver Trophy again this year.
